

Off The Pews Newsletter Fall 2021

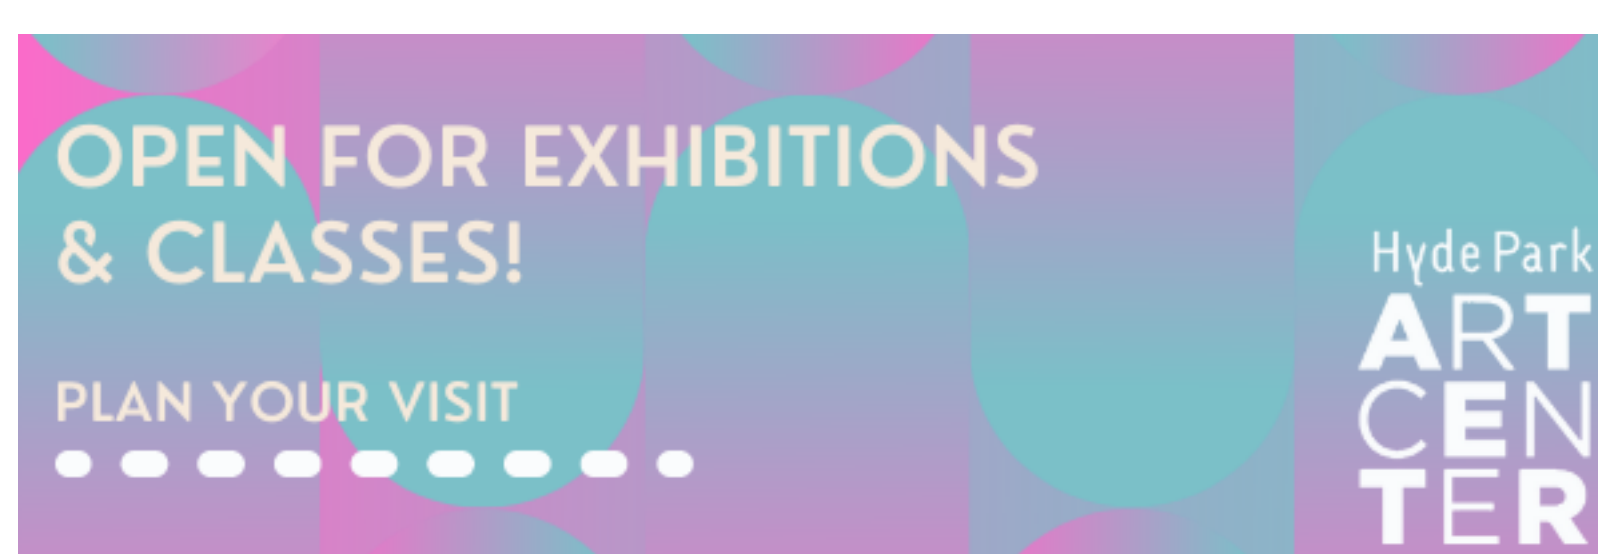

Alice Allison Dunnigan, Journalist (1906-1983)
Photo by Schlesinger Library, RIAS, Harvard University - https://www.flickr.com/photos/schlesinger_library/13270022973/
No restrictions, <https://commons.wikimedia.org/w/index.php?curid=52962132>

An African American Female First

Alice Allison Dunnigan was recently covered on CSPAN3. Alice was the first African American to acquire press credentials to cover the White House. She was also a civil rights advocate who overcame the struggles associated with both sexism and racism. A statue has been erected at the Seek Museum in her hometown of Russellville, Kentucky.

—Joyce Butts, contributor

Read More

Go to the HPAC Calendar

Scholarship Opportunity for 2022

AIGA Worldstudio Scholarships benefit underrepresented and economically disadvantaged students who are studying photography, illustration, and design disciplines in colleges and universities in the United States. Scholarships are awarded annually to encourage social and environmental responsibility and cultural awareness in the next generation of artists and designers. A new application cycle opens in February 2022.

Visit AIGA to Learn More

Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month

Watch this Washington Post Live interview of Diana Trujillo, Tactical Mission Lead for Perseverance, NASA JPL on their YouTube channel via the link below. Other fantastic interviews are available on their channel.

View the Interview

Speaking of heritage, Monday we celebrate Indigenous Peoples Day. If you are curious to know the historic tribal territories you currently call home, visit the Native Land Digital Map and plug in your city. The interactive digital map was founded by Vancouver-based web developer, Victor Temprano. There are other great resources available on the Map site.

Go to the Native Land Digital Map

Off The Pews: Faith In Action programs are possible through the support of generous donors. Please make a donation today to help support the next program. Thank you.

Donate

Off The Pews Board of Directors

Thank you very much to the OTP board for all of their hard work keeping the lights on and the mission moving forward! More information about our board members is available at on the Our Team page.

Community Partners

We are very grateful to all of our community partners for their continued support. We encourage you to visit OTP Community Partners page to find links to their sites.

webmaster@offthepews.org

Share on social

Check out our website